Public Comment: none

Financial Report: Mark Young reported that because of changes occurring in the financial division at the Contra Costa County Sheriff's Department he was unable to use his usual analysis spreadsheet to present a current update. He has contacted the newly appointed person in charge to get further information on future reporting from the Department.

P-5 Activity Report: Deputy Berry had previously sent Members the Police Report for November. The area has been quiet with service to citizen requests, vacation house checks and patrol requests the primary activities for the Deputies. High visibility was maintained in order to emphasize a police presence.

Deputy Carey will be leaving the Round Hill patrol in mid January and at this time the announcement has gone out for candidates who are interested in replacing him. The applicant will be chosen by considering their suitability and qualifications for Round Hill duty.

The patrol vehicle mileage is approaching 90000 miles. Replacement of the vehicle will necessitate a decision about leasing as an alternative to purchase. More information on the costs and benefits of leasing will be discussed at the next meeting.

Sheriff's Volunteers patrolled 0 Round Hill Streets (297 YTD) and issued 0 warning notices (67 YTD). These statistics have not changed since February due to the continued "Shelter in Place" order.

Old Business: Mark Cordone discussed the safety article that he wrote for the RHPOA newsletter. The continuing objective will be to keep Residents informed about the activities and existence of the P-5 Police District and its role in preserving a safe Round Hill neighborhood.

Mark Young is continuing to assist P-2B with some of their issues with funding police services and will keep the P-5 Committee informed. There was discussion of what level of involvement the Committee should play in this role and if there were benefits to Round Hill and/or the Alamo area.

New Business: Three Members of the P-5 Committee have decided to resign as of December 31, 2020. Bob Besse, Nate Ball and Jan Afridi will be leaving and the Committee thanks them for the service.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:20 PM

Respectfully submitted by Lee Mlejnek.
